

I believe it would be a good thing to unbundle the purchase of channels from the cable companies as long as they are not allowed to charge unreasonable fees. Right now cable is a racket on their pricing and no one seems to care that the public is not being served.